"Bible Camp: A Transformational Experience" (Part II)

12 "I appeal to you therefore, brothers and sisters, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies as a living sacrifice, holy and acceptable to God, which is your spiritual worship. 2 Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your minds, so that you may discern what is the will of God—what is good and acceptable and perfect."

Romans 12:1-2 NRSV

Intentional transformation is the best way to describe First Jenks (DOC) "Bible Camp." The theme is "Standing Through Difficult Times" the subject matter involves the inner person's self with character, thoughts, intentions, and attitudes read by various Bible students in the Book of Jeremiah.

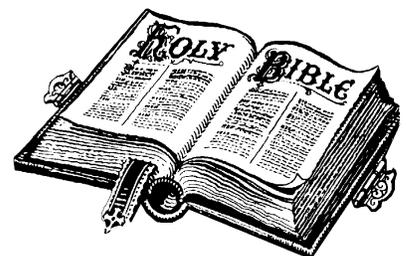

Spiritual transformation is the process by which Christ is formed in us, that's the key to Intentional transformation. How well we cope with summer attendance slumps, decreasing offerings and any other type of problem matters within the Church will be heavily dependent on our willingness to allow God's Holy Spirit to lead and guide us through the maze.

Intentional transformation is key to allowing the image of Christ to be the message of our lives. Intentional transformation in the lives of redeemed people is a testimony to the power of the Gospel and the results of discerning God's will through acts of obedience. (Romans 12:2)

Intentional transformation is the process of God at work in our lives through the Holy Spirit. "Bible Camp" is fun and exciting, make plans on joining us this coming Sunday at 9:30am.

In His Will,
Pastor Dean
